RAID MADE LAST NIGHT

Accused Has Preliminary Hearing Before Justice J. B. Smith, And Is Held By That Functionary For Court In the Sum of $1,000 Bail

Holding the accused under suspicion for some time, the Charleroi police got busy last night, and Chief of Police James A. Murphy, Officers Gelder and Thomas, proceeded to the home of John Poliski, aged 45 years, of 905 prospect avenue, and found 20 and 10-gallon stills in operation, 30 gallons of moonshine, and four barrels of mash.

The entrance to the distillery was made through a trap door in the bathroom of the residence which led to a "secret chamber" below in which was another trap door that led to the cave in the side of the hill where the liquor was made.

Poliski was taken before Justice J. B. Smith for a preliminary hearing, and held by that functionary for court in the sum of $1,000 bail, which he furnished.

George Miles and his sister, Catherine Miles, who live at Vista, and aged 11 years and nine years, respectively, were detected by attaches of the police at 5:30 o'clock last night appropriating articles, including two boxes of cigars, a fountain pen, and a pencil. Officers Thompson and Ross were summoned and quizzed to meet the small weekly payed for the children under detention.

According to Chief of Police Murphy the children belong to a family who are in destitute circumstances; family that has had little, if anything, to eat for some time; with the mother out of employment, either sick or crippled; a real case for charity. Owing to the extenuating circumstances in connection with the case, the children were freed.

Avella Man Is Freed Of The Charge Of Murdering J. Ross Dennis

Yesterday, and after deliberation for nearly 25 hours, a jury in federal court, Pittsburgh, which heard the evidence in the case of Daniel Avella, charged with the murder of J. Ross Dennis, a Pittsburgh company clerk, on December 23, 1922. The defendant was released to the county jail.

On the first trial last week, the jury found Dennis was acting as a coal company when he was shot down.

On the second time that Avella was tried for the murder, but a new trial was granted on the grounds that he was examined by the district judge as to irrelevant matters.

Tinge Of Sadness Follows Passing Of Most Versatile Backfield

Yesterday afternoon the 1924 Chareroi High School football squad met on the field for the last time this season where they assembled for the squad picture. In looking over the squad the casual observer cannot help but note that the end of the season marks the passing of four of the greatest players of the Red and Black can boast of, in Crabb, Crytzer, O'Brien and Paterline. In addition to these four there is a possibility that John, Shephard, Simonin and White will finish this year. These men, with several second-string men, already scheduled to graduate leave the team that will be hard to fill next September.

With the passing of Crabb, Crytzer, Captain O'Brien and Paterline, it may be said without fear of contradiction, that they represented the smoothest, most versatile backfield that Chareroi High has ever had. All four of these boys will be heard from later, and Chareroi fans will watch with profound interest their careers higher up in the football world, if these boys elect to attend some institution of higher learning. All four made their last season their best, and as an example for others on the squad they set the pace and hung up a reputation for those who will fill their shoes to aim at.

The senior members of the squad were given their uniforms, after the picture was taken. The Athletic Council approved this action in part reward for the splendid services these boys have rendered their school.

All attention is gradually turning to basketball. Both boys' and girls' squads are ready to hear the opening whistle. The girls have been practicing for two weeks under the direction of Coach Miller. The boys' schedule, including W. P. I. A. L. games, is printed below. The girls' schedule is not ready for publication as yet. Both teams will play during the Christmas vacation. Their opponents will in all probability be teams selected from the alumni.

The boys' schedule is as follows:

DeMarco's Boxing Recalls Old Stars To A Leading Philadelphia Sport Critic

Philadelphia critics and fans are still talking about the exhibition of boxing class which Cuddy DeMarco of Chareroi gave in beating Danny Gartin there last Monday night. Albert E. Dodson writes The Pittsburgh Sun from Philadelphia:

"The enclosed clipping will give you an idea of the work of Cuddy DeMarco here. His actions in the ring were a treat for sore eyes. He was so much the master of his opponent that the fans forgot to pull for their own native son, and fastened their eyes on the wonderful weaving in and out of a boy who is surely destined to go higher in his profession. While he had met Danny Gartin before, the boy he fought Monday has no small reputation in this community, and Cuddy's fighting has paved the way for more ter Campbell, and others of a generation back. It may be recalled a scene in a gymnasium with a teacher (DeMarco) giving a pupil (Gartin) a lesson in the manly art. Although Gartin was game and aggressive and always trying, he was really never in it. DeMarco fooled him time and again in every round. Cuddy having the old-time method of always getting inside Danny's guard and doing almost as he pleased with the local boxer, DeMarco started Danny's nose bleeding in the first round and kept it bleeding till the end, and he also opened an old cut over Gartin's eye."

BELIEVE PLAYER DEAL HAS BEEN GONE THROUGH

Details of a deal between the Yankees and the St. Louis Browns, which would send Joe Bush west and put Babe Ruth in a New York uniform have been completed, it was understood in New York yesterday.

Miller Huggins, however, would not talk and Ed Barrow, business manager of the Yankees, merely said "a proposition has been discussed and both parties have decided to 'sleep over it.'"

The dope has it that Huggins wanted to make a trade involving Bob Shawkey but that George Sisler held out for Bush, who is something of an outfielder and slugger and that finally Huggins gave in.

Kid Kaplan Stops Jose Lombardo In The Fourth Round

Louis Kid Kaplan of Meriden, Conn., won the right to meet Danny Kramer of Philadelphia for the featherweight championship of the world January 2, when he knocked out Jose Lombardo in the fourth round of what was to have been a 12-round battle in Madison Square Garden, New York last night. Lombardo, after being floored for the count of seven in the fourth round, came up staggering and was then knocked half way through the ropes for the count of 10. It was a series of vicious hooks to the jaw that spelled defeat for the Panaman. The end came after two minutes and 53 seconds of the fourth round.

As a result of his victory last evening, Kaplan has a chance to succeed Johnny Dundee as featherweight champion of the world. The bout was the second round of the featherweight tournament organized by the New York state boxing commission. Lombardo won his way to the second round of the tournament by beating Lou Paluso, while Kaplan made the grade by winning over Bobby Garcia. Kaplan weighed 125 pounds while Lombardo scaled 123 3-4 pounds.

Mike Dundee of Rock Island, crowd a spectacular victory over Bobby Garcia of Camp Holibird, Maryland, in a speedy 12-round semi-final match. Dundee won the first eight rounds handily, but tired as the match waned and Garcia, growing stronger, took the last four. Dundee's lead was too great, however, and he was given the decision. Dundee came in at 124 3-4 pounds and Garcia at 24 3-4 pounds.

What a Daguerreotype Is

The name is given to the result of the first successful attempt at photography, in honor of the inventor, Louis Daguerre. The process was perfected in 1839 and consisted of a copper plate silvered and covered by the action of the vapor of iodine, with a thin film of iodine of silver. By means of the action of light on the iodine of silver at the focal point of the camera, a picture of the object is formed on the plate. This result is afterward developed by means of vapor of mercury and fixed by treatment in a solution of sodium hyposulfite. In recognition of the importance of his discovery the French government awarded to Daguerre a life pension of 6,000 francs.—Kansas City Star.

DAVIES IS TO MEET MANSON DECEMBER 18

The Majestic Club of McKeesport has decided to hold one more show before shutting down until a January date, following the holidays. The final show of this year in the Tube City will be staged next Thursday night, December 18, at the Palisades rink, and it is the intention of Promoters McGirr and Davenport to make the card an exceptionally attractive one by putting on two 10-round bouts and two six-round contests, or a total of 32 rounds of fighting.

One of the 10-round matches for the double wind-up was arranged yesterday, when Hughey Manson of Homestead and Willie Davies of Chareroi were signed to meet at 112 pounds, weighing in at 3 p. m. on the day of the show. This will be the final bout on the program and it promises to produce more action than any seen in McKeesport in a long time, as the boys are not only two of the fastest and most aggressive little fellows in the game, but there is a warm feeling of rivalry between them. They met on two previous occasions, one of the bouts taking place in Virginia, but failed to settle the question of superiority.

That of their followers, both contests being very closely waged. This time they will be out to get a decisive result, and the going is likely to be sultry from start to finish. It will be Davies' first appearance in McKeesport since the days when he appeared throughout this section in boxing exhibitions with his sister, Beatrice, the two being recognized as among the cleverest boxers of their years in the country. Since then the boy has developed into one of the best flyweights in this part of the map.

Old Aunt Sarah was that rare creation, a perfect laundress, and the Smith family rejoiced in her, with the exception of Mr. Smith, who said that he did not approve of Auntie starching his pajamas. So Mrs. Smith promised that auntie should be spoken to in the matter.

"Auntie," she began, diplomatically, "you need not be so very particular about Mr. Smith's pajamas; don't starch them at all; just iron them out smoothly."

Aunt Sarah looked at Mrs. Smith reprovingly. "I don't begrudge him the work, missis. I wants Mr. Smith's office clothes to look just as well as I kin make 'em."—Kansas City Star.

officers in Massey's regiment speak in his behalf explaining situations regarding the death of the officer which indicated that Massey was not guilty of murder, but nevertheless, despite the fact that he was never proven guilty he was sentenced to life imprisonment at Leavenworth prison, where he has served more than five years.
Congressmen Henry W. Temple and Clyde Kelly, together with influential officials in the department of justice at Washington, were instrumental in securing a new trial for Massey when his officers and fellow soldiers could appear and tell the entire situation surrounding the mysterious killing. This was done, Massey was found not guilty and his pardon resulted. Clarence Massey, more than a year ago secured the pardon and was to come home last August, but, owing to "red tape" his release was not signed until early this week.

Proper Nails for Shingles
One of the most commonly neglected features in shingling roofs is the matter of nails. Good zinc-coated nails always should be used for wooden shingles. It is folly to attach a high-grade material, like the best wooden shingles with cheap iron nails which will rust out in a short span of years and allow the shingles to work loose.—Exchange.

Spanish Treasure Revealed
After thirty years George W. Hawkins of Setauket Long Island, N. Y., has revealed the fact that he has dug up a number of Spanish gold coins. Year by year he disposed of them to numismatists at a premium, there being 100 in all. He discovered the coins while digging holes for bean poles in 1894. Remnants of a canvas bag were found. The coins were dated 1770.

Accounting for Proverb
One of the best-known proverbs is "A miss is as good as a mile." It is possible that the original proverb read "Amis is as good as Amile." Amis and Amile were legendary soldiers of Charlemagne, and, besides being great friends, were considerably like one another in appearance. They were famous as the heroes of a widely known song. Later they entered into the traditions of the church and were invoked indifferently. Hence the proverb.

GOMPERS DIED
TODAY AT 4:05 A. M.
issued before Gompers' death, the consulting physicians declared that there had been no change in his condition and that there was every indication he would spend a comfortable night.
At 2 o'clock, however, there was a sudden change in the veteran leader's condition and he sank rapidly from that time until his death.
Shortly after 3 o'clock all members of the Gompers party and officials of the American Federation of Labor were awakened by Wright and a United States immigration officer who stood guard at the door all night.
Local labor leaders were notified of the chief's condition at that time also and a number of men and women began crowding the corridors near the room on the third floor of the St. Anthony.
Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, went into the chief's room at 3:30 o'clock but would make no statement at that time.
"The end is near now. It is just artificial life."
Between 3:45 o'clock and 4 o'clock Gompers grasped the hand of one of his associates, asking for his wife in a faint voice.
"Please send for my wife. I know I am dying," he begged.
It was within ten minutes after he spoke those words that he died, according to Wright.
After Gompers' death was announced, men with non-gray hair in wrinkled business suits, stood in front of his door and cried—unashamed.
These men—every one of them leaders in the labor world—spoke hardly a word.
They were too moved by the death of their chief to talk.
Silent women in kimonos—members of the American Federation of Labor secretarial staff—kept silently. Their leader was dead.
At 4:45 o'clock members of the executive staff of the American Federation of Labor met in Secretary Frank Morrison's room for a conference, and Wright announced that a statement would be made following the conference.
Gompers made no rational statements regarding the future of the American Federation of Labor, just prior to his death, according to Wright.
President Coolidge today wired Mrs. Samuel Gompers widow of the labor leader, who died early today, expressions of sympathy in her bereavement.

Red Sea Unchanged
The Red sea at the present time is, approximately the same width as it was at the time of the parting of the sea. The breadth of the sea ranges from 100 to 200 miles.

Learn Other Birds' Notes
Birds learn to call they utter when in the nest, but in many instances learn the notes of the birds within sound of whose voices they have been reared.

A Turn About
If every person who owns a suburban lot builds a home on it the next generation will be coming to the city for solitude—Brooklyn Eagle

Fast as the Trains
The speed of the wood duck is about ninety feet per second, according to Nature Magazine, or slightly more than a mile a minute.

The Spenders

You've met them—the men or the women, married or unmarried, who "can't save a cent to save their lives."
They laugh about it when young. In middle age it's still funny, even when they have to drop friends and forego pleasures.
But later—constant worry is a sad lot. Success has passed them. They become dependents.
The man or woman who saves something each week sows seeds of comfort, happiness, financial independence.

Harrisburg, Dec. 13.—The State Highway Department announced today that 924 Michigan license plates will be recognized by Pennsylvania authorities after January 1 upon request of Michigan authorities for an extension of time to February 15 or March 1.

The deferment was necessary, because of legislation pending in Michigan which will affect the issuance of the 1925 license plates.

WOMAN'S AMBITION BLOCKING PROGRESS IN CABINET CRISIS

Berlin, Dec. 3.—The ambition of a woman is blocking settlement of the German cabinet crisis, according to gossip in government circles.

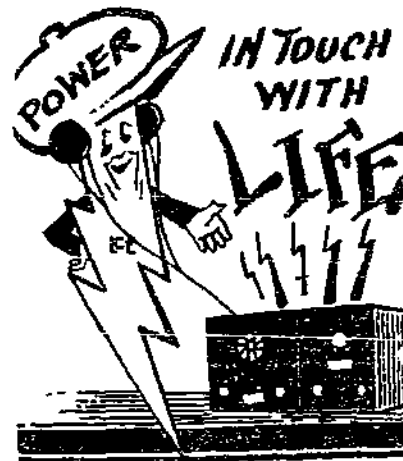

Frau Stresemann, wife of the foreign minister, has long wanted to be Chancellor of Germany, and is understood to be urging her husband, who heads the Nationalists, to obtain the post of chancellor.

Dr. Stresemann himself is ambitious, to head a government, but the complicated situation resulting from the national elections makes it practically impossible for a cabinet of the Right to be formed.

Chancellor Marx received the leadership in the Socialists party today. The latter have declared they will not support a government headed by Dr. Stresemann. The latter, realizing that his tenure of office would be brief who spent a delightful evening in cards without such support, is not anxious and games. The bride was presented with many very beautiful and useful gifts. Luncheon was served by Mrs. W. H. Jones, assisted by Mrs. H. W. Tustin and Mrs. Evans.

PROMINENT BODIES ARE TO HOLD A CONFERENCE

Richmond, Va., Dec. 13.—New England, New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware shipping interests will hold a conference in Philadelphia, December 16, with representatives of the Virginia State Chamber of Commerce and the Hampton Roads Maritime Exchange for the purpose of arriving at a concerted plan of action to obtain a ship refuge off Assateague Island, on the Virginia Coast. In the afternoon these interests, with a concerted plan of action, will go to Wilmington, Del., and present their requests at an open hearing before Engineer Earl I. Brown.

The Conference was called at the request of the Virginia shipping interests, in order to obtain unity of action for a refuge, after all interests concerned had received a letter from Colonel Brown notifying them that he would report unfavorably on the plan due to its excessive cost.

Figures that the Virginia State Chamber and the Maritime Exchange will present will show that forty-two vessels and twenty-two lives have been lost off the island in recent years with a property loss of $4,080,750. It is estimated that if this loss could have been saved had there been proper protection.

At a former hearing nothing was accomplished due to divided opinion on the cost of the improvement and the Engineer felt unable to recommend any of the plans proposed. Costs of projects proposed ran to $12,000,000. The Virginians will ask that a ship refuge costing only $2,000,000 be asked of the federal government.

Abyssinian Alphabet Huge

Abyssinia is a nation of more than 10,000,000 of whom a large percentage are illiterate, and it is a coincidence that the Abyssinian alphabet contains 226 letters. If an Abyssinian type writer should be built on the same plan as the one used in America and European countries, it would have nearly 500 keys. Without any extra characters it would ordinarily have 472 keys, providing 944 letters, numerals and necessary characters.

Advice for Poets

To the poet, as to every other, we say first of all, "See." If you cannot do this, you cannot do anything. Singing rhymes together, jingling sensibilities against each other, and name yourself a poet; there is no hope for you. If you can, there is, in prose or verse, in action or speculation, all manner of hope.—Carlyle in "Heroes and Hero Worship."

But surely, urged Jones, seeing is believing.
Not necessarily, replied Brown. For instance, I see you every day.

Burglars Beat An Aged Man

David Garrett, age 70, who lives by himself near Fredericktown, is in a serious condition as a result of his being brutally beaten by burglars who entered his home last Saturday night.

The aged man was hit over the head a number of times. He is still suffering from concussion of the brain and is rational only at intervals.

Last Sunday morning Mr. Garrett's son-in-law, Wilbert Crayne, went to the home with some mail. The door was locked but he succeeded in getting Mr. Garrett to unfasten the door. When he entered, he found Mr. Garrett in a serious condition. From conditions about the house, it is supposed whoever had entered the house had done so after he had retired. The bed was covered with blood.

Mr. Garrett had received $25 on Saturday for some work he had been doing. He also had some other money and this was missing. Twenty-eight dollars, which was in some papers, was overlooked by the robbers. Mr. Garrett was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Wilbert Crayne, of Millsboro, where he has since been kept. He cannot give any description of the burglars.

Mr. Garrett formerly lived near Rices Landing and for many years was engaged in the dairy business. He is well known in the Rices Landing, Clarksville and Fredericktown communities. The officers have no clues as to the guilty person.
